(Updated Fall 2021)		UK LEVEL 6 UK CREDITS:15
PREREQUISITES:	DR 2012 Introduction to the Craft of Acting DR 3140 Acting the Scene
CATALOG DESCRIPTION:	Further development of the actor's craft in approaching a character and rehearsing effectively.
RATIONALE:	This course is designed for theatre arts majors with a specific interest in acting. Students develop more sophisticated means of analysing a script for richer acting "choices" and a deeper connection with character. They are exposed to a number of acting exercises drawn from several acting techniques.
LEARNING OUTCOMES:	As a result of taking this course, the student should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Apply critical and practical text analysis 2. Construct an "acting score" for a part. 3. Experiment with partners in developing a scene collaboratively. 4. Make use of physical and vocal preparation to open up the self for rehearsals and performance. 5. Develop a character organically and truthfully.
METHOD OF TEACHING AND LEARNING:	In congruence with the teaching and learning strategy of the college, the following tools are used: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Studio work. Readings, physical and vocal exercises, feedback in progress, rehearsals and performances. ● Office hours: students are encouraged to make full use of instructor's office hours for questions, to see their exams/papers, and/or go over lecture material. ● Use of a blackboard site, where instructors post lecture notes, assignment instructions, timely announcements, as well as additional resources.
