Formative:

In-class and out-of-class assignments in preparation of exams and essay	0%

The formative “In-class and out-of-class assignments” aim to prepare students for the essay, midterm exam and final exam. The “Essay” tests learning outcome 2. The “Use of English” tests learning outcome 5. The “Final assessment” tests learning outcomes 1, 3 and 4 (the “final exam” tests learning outcomes 1 and 3, and the “oral presentation” tests learning outcome 4).

I. The essay will be taught as a “package” and constitute multi-week units. To receive a passing grade for the essay, students must complete all stages of the assignment by submitting an outline, a first draft, and a revision on the dates specified by the instructor.

Essay: 400-500 words

All essay-related work must be word-processed. All stages must be submitted through Blackboard/Turnitin as well as turned in to the instructor in hardcopy form.

III. The presentation will include five (5) PowerPoint slides and will last between 4 and 6 minutes. It will be taught as a package. To receive a passing grade for a presentation, students must complete all stages by submitting a topic and slides on the dates specified by the instructor.

IV. Class preparation and participation includes attendance, performance in class meetings and preparedness for classes including homework, and it is assessed via a rubric that rewards all the above.

End-of-Term Portfolio Submission: In order to facilitate assessment and to receive a final grade, students will turn in a folder at the end of the term that contains all of their previously assessed work (i.e., outline, first and final draft of the essay, slides of presentation as well as any accompanying material, such as homework). The instructor will give students specific guidelines for the order of the content and for any additional material students should include in their portfolio.

Given the emphasis on in-class learning, students are required to attend 92% of instructional class time.

Students taking this course are not eligible for re-sits on failed course assessments. The final grade is derived from the weighted average of all class assessments.

	EAP 1001 may be repeated only once.
