(Updated Fall 2021)

US CREDITS: 3/0/3*PREREQUISITES:EC 1000 Principles of Microeconomics
EC 1101 Principles of MacroeconomicsCATALOG DESCRIPTION:

The political and institutional framework of the European Union. The Union's agricultural, industrial, social, monetary and regional policy. Theory and practice of economic integration.

RATIONALE:

The study of market integration is valuable in contemporary society. This course provides a thorough understanding of the EU, focusing on EU policies that affect households and firms that operate inside and outside the EU. The course applies economic theory to the real world and addresses pertinent tradeoffs and challenges.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

As a result of taking this course, the student should be able to:

1. Understand the tradeoffs in relation to the level of centralization of EU decision making
2. Analyze the effects of a customs union on trade and economic development.
3. Demonstrate detailed knowledge of the distributional and efficiency effects of factor mobility.
4. Analyze the impact of market integration on various market structures.
5. Identify the advantages and disadvantages of a common currency.
6. Critically evaluate the microeconomic and macroeconomic policies of the EU.

METHOD OF TEACHING AND LEARNING:

In congruence with the learning and teaching strategy of the college, the following tools are used:

- Classes consist of lectures and class discussions of recent articles assigned by the instructor.
- Office hours: students are encouraged to make full use of the office hours of their instructor, where they can ask questions and go over lecture material.
- Use of Blackboard, where instructors post lecture notes, assignment instructions, timely announcements, as well as additional resources.
