

The American College of Greece (also called herein as “Data Controller”) hereby informs you that it collects, processes and stores, in electronic or paper form, the personal data that are included in the present application, according to the provisions of the applicable legislation on personal data, namely today the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council (“General Data Protection Regulation”), and the law 4624/2019 regarding the protection of personal data, as in effect from time to time (called herein as “the Personal Data Legislation”), and according to the specific terms and conditions set below:

The American College of Greece collects the above personal data by you for the purpose of the proper operation of the event. The legal bases of the above processing is the fact that the processing of the above personal data is necessary for the performance of our contract, namely your participation to the event and the serving of the legitimate interest of ACG.

The above personal data will be accessible and processed by authorized employees of the American College of Greece, who will process the personal data solely for the fulfillment of the aforementioned purposes, and in no case for their own benefit. Furthermore, some of the above personal data might be accessible and processed, within the framework of their responsibilities, by authorized external associates of ACG for the fulfillment of the aforementioned purposes.

The American College of Greece will keep and process the above personal data for as long as it is required for the serving of the aforementioned purposes of processing and for as long as it is required in order to comply with its legal obligations and to defend itself against any legal claims. After the above time period, the American College of Greece will proceed to the definite deletion of the above personal data.

Subject to certain exceptions, conditions and limitations provided by the Personal Data Legislation, you can exercise your right of access, rectification, restriction of processing, objection, erasure of the above personal data, as well as the right to data portability. In case you exercise one of the aforementioned rights, the American College of Greece will take any possible measure for the prompt satisfaction of your request, according to the specific provisions and conditions of the Personal Data Legislation, and shall inform you in writing regarding the satisfaction of your request, or for the reasons that prevent the exercise of the right by you or the satisfaction of one or more of the aforementioned rights according to the Personal Data Legislation.

Furthermore, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Hellenic Data Protection Authority, in case you consider that the processing of your personal data is against the applicable legislation.

If you have any queries in relation to the protection of your personal data or you wish to exercise your legal rights, please contact the Data Protection Officer of the American College of Greece by using the following contact details:
