

Financial Assistance Program 2021-22

Need- based and Merit-based Scholarships for Degree-seeking students

The American College of Greece, with the help of donors who believe in the transformative value of a quality education, has developed a long tradition of providing scholarships to students who distinguish themselves academically and/or face financial need. The scholarships cover all or part of the recipient's tuition.

Financial Assistance Terms and Conditions

- All applicants who are applying for Need-Based Scholarships are required to submit a "Need-Based Financial Assistance – Grants" application, in addition to the scholarship application, as financial need is one of the criteria for need-based scholarships.
- Applicants who are awarded a scholarship must abide by its stipulations, which are found in the ACG Web Site.
- Non-credit courses are not covered by the tuition reduction grant except for courses in the English for Academic Purposes Program (EAPP).
- Students on academic probation (CI below 2.00/4.00) are not eligible to receive any kind of financial assistance.
- Certificate-Minor seeking students and Non-Degree students are not eligible to apply for Scholarships.
- Only complete applications with all necessary documentation, submitted within the respective deadlines will be evaluated.
- All applications and supporting materials are retained by the Office of Financial Assistance and Planning; All materials are kept on file, under conditions of security and strict confidence, and in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EC) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council ("General Data Protection Regulation") and the Greek legislation on the protection of personal data (Law 4624/2019), as in effect from time to time (the "Personal Data Legislation").
- All communication regarding the progress of an application is done through the personal email address (as reported in the application form) and/or through the students' ACG Mail and myACG portal for continuing students.
- The College reserves the right to adjust the academic criteria for financial assistance found on its website and on scholarship brochures.

Documents that must accompany Scholarship Applications for the Academic Year 2021-22:

- A Curriculum Vitae (CV).
- Recommendation letter(s) – optional for the student applying for scholarships under the School of Fine and Performing Arts.
- Any other certificate based on each scholarship's eligibility requirements (e.g. Birth certificate, residency certificate, etc.).
- "Need-Based Financial Assistance – Grants" Application for scholarships that have financial need as one of their criteria.

Evaluation Process (which takes place throughout the academic year)

All completed applications are screened by the Scholarships Committee, which will compile a short list of qualified applicants. In the next and final stage, these applicants will be interviewed by the respective committee.

The Scholarships Committee reserves the right to:

- extend an annual scholarship to the same recipient, provided the said recipient continues to meet the eligibility requirements and has submitted an application.
- award to an applicant a scholarship other than the one that the said applicant chose to apply for.

The screening will be based on the following criteria:

- Meeting of all the eligibility requirements for the relevant scholarship(s).
- Personal statement(s) and Curriculum Vitae (CV) submitted by the applicant along with his/her application.
- Recommendation letter(s) – optional for the student applying for scholarships under the School of Fine and Performing Arts.
- Credits earned and CI achieved by the end of Summer Session II 2021 (for continuing students).
- High School graduation grade and English language proficiency (for new entering students).
- Student conduct.
- Financial need demonstrated by submitting a "Need-Based Financial Assistance – Grants" Application (only for need-based scholarships).

Scholarships awarded through the Frances Rich School of Fine and Performing Arts will be reviewed and considered by the School's dean, department heads and faculty.
