Scholarships for Continuing Degree-seeking Students

With the help of generous donors who believe in the transformative value of good education, ACG has a long tradition of providing scholarships (full or partial upon reduction) to students who distinguish themselves academically and/or face financial need.

Need-Based Scholarships

To be included in the evaluation process, all students must submit the Online Deree Need-Based Financial Assistance – Scholarships Application and the Online Deree Need-Based Financial Assistance – Grants Application along with all required documents (you may refer to the How to Apply section at the end of the leaflet).

How to apply:

- Qualified candidates can submit an online application by visiting the following link: www.acg.edu/financial-assistance-procedure.
- All applications must be submitted June 1 – July 17, 2023

Evaluation Process:

All completed applications are screened by the Scholarships Committee, which will compile a short list of qualified applicants. In the next and final stage, these applicants will be interviewed by the respective committee.

The Scholarships Committee reserves the right to:

- extend an annual scholarship to the same recipient, provided the said recipient continues to meet the eligibility requirements and has applied.
- award, to an applicant, a scholarship other than the one that the said applicant chose to apply for.

The screening will be based on the following criteria:

- All eligibility requirements for the relevant scholarship(s) are met.
- Promptness in completing the application process.
- Pre-recorded self-presentation (video) – students applying for the scholarships under the Frances Rich School of Fine and Performing Arts are not required to submit a pre-recorded self-presentation (video).
- Personal statement(s) by the applicant (which is included in the application).
- Curriculum Vitae (CV).
- Recommendation Letter(s) – students applying for the scholarships under the Frances Rich School of Fine and Performing Arts are not required to submit recommendation letter(s).
- Credits earned and CI achieved by the end of Summer Session II 2023.
- Student conduct.
- Financial need demonstrated by submitting a “Need-Based Financial Assistance – Grants” Application (only for need-based scholarships).

Scholarships awarded through the Frances Rich School of Fine and Performing Arts will be reviewed and considered by the School’s dean, department heads and faculty

Please note:

- All applicants who are applying for Need-Based Scholarships are required to submit a “Need-Based Financial Assistance – Grants” application, in addition to the scholarship application, as financial need is one of the criteria for need-based scholarships.
- The College reserves the right to adjust the academic criteria for financial assistance found on its website and on scholarship brochures.
- Financial Assistance is given for Deree tuition only and does not include other fees.
- Non-credit courses are not covered by the tuition reduction grant except for courses in the English for Academic Purposes Program (EAPP).
- Students on academic probation (CI below 2.00/4.00) are not eligible to receive any kind of financial assistance.
- Certificate-Minor seeking students and Non-Degree students are not eligible to apply for Scholarships.
